Direct Shipping is changing our industry and if you are not changing with it you may be losing bushels as well as dollars! This workshop at the Columbus Holiday Inn Express is designed to cover the fundamentals of direct shipping. This workshop will cover the historical background that has led to the wide utilization of direct shipping and examine where all the bushels are going, what the Farm Service Agency (FSA) and Public Service Commission (PSC) want you to do in regards to direct shipping record management, and what the processor or elevator's role is in direct shipping and basis trading. These workshops are for elevators, processors and merchandisers looking to maximize their direct ship potential!
